

Who is the next 'cover boy'?

It is no secret that The Examiner's editorial staff detests Gov. Martin O'Malley. But I believe the paper would achieve far more success in discrediting him by sticking to the issues.

Putting the nonsensical ravings and photo of Walter Abbott, who threatened our state's chief executive, in the paper would seem unwise. Who is the next cover boy for The Examiner — John Wilkes Booth? Lee Harvey Oswald?

Patrick Weadon
SEVERNA PARK

To add your voice

We will consider publishing letters containing fewer than 150 words. Please include name, phone number and city.

By e-mail:

balt.letters@

baltimoreexaminer.com

No attachments, please.

President Thomas V. Mike Miller and his supporters will see the damage they caused; alas, by then it will be too late.

How far does the Maryland economy and the Maryland voter have to be burdened before legislators realize they must repel illegal invaders, enforce the laws and show compassion to our legal deserving residents before anyone else?

King George III did not realize the magnitude of dissatisfaction of the colonies in 1775; perhaps our legislature is equally as blind.

We need more men like Walter